1. Update by the West Cook YMCA regarding the Fred Hampton Swimming Pool

   Mr. Phillip Jimenez and Ms. Kim Polk of the West Cook Young Men’s Christian Association (YMCA) advised the Board of the current situation at the Fred Hampton swimming pool. They supplied the Board with a breakdown of concerns, a youth pool pass, and a spreadsheet of tasks performed regarding sponsorships, marketing, volunteers and maintenance amongst other items. Mr. Jimenez stated the attendance goal was 1,200 with it currently being at 1,829. He also pointed out the current gap to revenue is $25,656.00 and that they reduced expenses over last year by 50%. Mr. Jimenez stated current problems are the closures due to weather which amount to 30% of the time they have been open, and the lateness in the signing of the contract. He suggests working on an agreement for next year so possible contracts could be signed by February 1, 2015, so concerted efforts will have a bigger impact on the season. He also made suggestions to replace/repair the facility’s wear and tear needing tending to. Ms. Polk thanked Trustee(s) Ealey-Cross, Dorris, and Rivers for their efforts in the success of the season.

   Discussion: Attorney Jurusik, Trustee(s) C. Ealey-Cross, A. Dorris, and R. Rivers, made comments, raised questions, and/or sought clarifications. Their concerns were duly noted. Mr. Jimenez and Ms. Polk responded to their concerns.
